Management Discussion of Fund Performance

November 13, 2018

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the portfolio management team's view on the significant factors and developments during the period ended September 30, 2018, that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook. If the Fund was established during the period, "period" represents the period from inception to the end of the fiscal period. For information on the Fund's longer-term performance, as applicable, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report. In this report, "Mackenzie" refers to Mackenzie Financial Corporation, the manager of the Fund. In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the Fund as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of the Fund's Series PW securities is discussed below. The performance of all series is shown in the Past Performance section of the report. Where series returns differ, it is primarily because different levels of fees and expenses were charged to each series, or because securities of a series were not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period. Please refer to the Fund Formation and Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by each series.

During the period, the Fund's Series PW securities returned -0.6% (after deducting fees and expenses paid by the series). This compares with the ICE BofAML Global Broad Market (Hedged) Index return of -0.3%. All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in the index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in the index returns.

Performance varied across global government bond markets over the period, but in general yields rose across the curve. Shorter-term yields increased significantly, causing yield curves to flatten, particularly in Canada and the United States. As economic data improved, central banks in Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom and Norway raised their policy rates. Emerging market bonds underperformed as a result of the strong U.S. dollar. The Canadian dollar was volatile as the benefit of a robust economy was offset by trade concerns.

The Fund currently invests all its assets in other funds managed by Mackenzie, and the following discussion reflects the activities of these underlying funds. The Fund underperformed the index primarily due to its duration positioning in government and corporate bonds.

An underweight position and security selection in government bonds contributed to performance, as did exposure to term loans, which performed well and provided additional income because of their higher coupon rates. An overweight position and security selection in corporate bonds also contributed.

The Fund's foreign currency exposure was substantially hedged. However, tactical exposure to certain foreign currencies was retained to manage risk and potentially produce a higher return. This unhedged exposure slightly detracted from performance as most major developed and emerging market currencies depreciated relative to the Canadian dollar.

Over the period, portfolio activity and market effect resulted in new exposure to Qatar and increased exposure to Australia and Germany, while exposure to the United States and Denmark decreased. At the sector level, exposure to term loans and corporate bonds increased, while exposure to foreign government bonds and federal bonds decreased. The portfolio management team continually makes tactical adjustments to the Fund's fixed income allocations, so the period-end exposures do not necessarily represent a long-term strategic position.

Net Assets

The Fund's NAV declined by 37.7% to $2.7 million at September 30, 2018, from $4.3 million at March 31, 2018. This change was composed primarily of $1.6 million in net redemptions.

Fees and Expenses

The annualized management expense ratio ("MER") for Series PW of 1.22% during the period ended September 30, 2018, was lower than the MER of 1.29% for the year ended March 31, 2018. The MERs (before and after waivers or absorptions, if any) for each series are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report. The MERs for certain series decreased due to a decrease in fund costs and a decrease in the management fee rates effective June 1, 2018, as noted in the Fund Formation and Series Information section of the report.

Recent Developments

The portfolio management team believes most developed countries are shifting toward less accommodative monetary policies. In the team's opinion, unless U.S. domestic market volatility and economic risks rise notably, the Federal Reserve is likely to increase the federal funds rate by December. The team expects this to flatten the yield curve further. Now that a North American trade deal has been negotiated, the team believes the Bank of Canada will also raise its policy rate, although more slowly than its U.S. counterpart due to its concerns about high levels of household debt. The team believes emerging markets may continue to face challenges unless the U.S. dollar, which currently appears to be supported by strong domestic economic growth, starts to weaken.

Related Party Transactions

The following arrangements result in fees paid by the Fund to Mackenzie or to companies affiliated with the Fund.

Management and Administration Services

For each applicable series, the Fund paid management fees and administration fees to Mackenzie at the annual rates specified under Fund Formation and Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, Mackenzie pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund that are not included in management fees. See also Management Fees.

Other Related Party Transactions

At September 30, 2018, Mackenzie had an investment of $11,209 in the Fund (0.4% of the Fund's NAV).

The Fund did not rely on an approval, positive recommendation or standing instruction from the Mackenzie Funds' Independent Review Committee with respect to any related party transactions.

Past Performance

The following bar charts present the performance of each series of the Fund for each of the fiscal periods shown. The charts show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each fiscal period, or on the series inception or reinstatement date, as applicable, would have increased or decreased by the last day of the fiscal period presented. Series inception or reinstatement dates can be found under Fund Formation and Series Information.

(1) These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. This information is derived from the Fund's unaudited interim financial statements and audited annual financial statements. The net assets per security presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value per security calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences can be found in the Notes to Financial Statements.

(2) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the fiscal period.

(3) Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

- (1) This information is provided as at the end of the fiscal period shown.
- (2) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. If in the period a series was established or reinstated, the management expense ratio is annualized from the date of inception or reinstatement. Mackenzie may waive or absorb operating expenses at its discretion and stop waiving or absorbing such expenses at any time without notice.
- (3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
- (4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not provided when the Fund is less than one year old. The value of any trades to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, is excluded from the portfolio turnover rate.

Management Fees

The management fee for each applicable series is calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of its NAV. The Fund's management fees were used by Mackenzie to pay for the costs of managing the investment portfolio of the Fund and/or the underlying fund(s), as applicable, including providing investment analysis and recommendations, making investment decisions, making brokerage arrangements for the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio, and providing other services. Mackenzie also used the management fees to fund sales commissions, trailing commissions and any other compensation (collectively "distribution-related payments") to registered dealers and brokers whose clients invest in the Fund.

The following dealers affiliated with Mackenzie may be entitled to distribution-related payments from Mackenzie on the same basis as unrelated registered brokers and dealers: IPC Securities Corporation, Investors Group Securities Inc., IPC Investment Corporation and Investors Group Financial Services Inc.

Mackenzie used approximately 43% of the total management fee revenues received from all Mackenzie funds during the period to fund distribution-related payments to registered dealers and brokers. In comparison, such distribution-related payments for the Fund represented on average 22% of the management fees paid by all applicable series of the Fund during the period. The actual percentage for each series may be higher or lower than the average depending on the level of trailing commissions and sales commissions paid for that series.
