Corporate Class Funds managed by Mackenzie Investments made 2019 year-end distributions on March 22, 2019 for funds having year-ends for tax purposes of March 31, 2019.

The funds' year-end distributions are determined upon completion of the current tax year and may differ significantly from the amounts shown in the estimates for a variety of reasons including the occurrence of events since the estimates were first tabulated and variances resulting from the estimation process. If a particular fund or series is not included in the distribution factor file, it is because it will not pay a year-end distribution in 2019. Included with the distribution factors is an indication of the percentage of a fund's NAV per unit represented by each distribution factor. The size of the actual distribution factor as a percentage of a fund's NAV per unit is subject to material variation and such indicative percentages should not be relied upon. Mackenzie Investments provides distribution factors for information purposes only. These factors are not intended to be, nor should they be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular person.

The payment of distributions is not guaranteed and may fluctuate. The payment of distributions should not be confused with a fund's performance, rate of return or yield. If distributions paid by the fund are greater than the performance of the fund, your original investment will shrink. Distributions paid as a result of capital gains realized by a fund, and income and dividends earned by a fund are taxable in your hands in the year they are paid. Your adjusted cost base will be reduced by the amount of any returns of capital. If your adjusted cost base goes below zero, you will have to pay capital gains tax on the amount below zero.

For Funds purchased using the U.S. Dollar Settlement Option funds, Mackenzie determines the U.S. dollar amount of each distribution by taking the Canadian dollar amount and converting it to a U.S. dollar amount using the exchange rate on the day of the distribution payment.
