

Comprehensive, cost-effective portfolios

Why you need a managed solution

Many of life's milestones are often tied to financial well-being. The right investment can help you achieve your goals and provide peace of mind. Managed solutions have become an integral part of the Canadian investment landscape, providing individuals with ready-made portfolios that hold diverse groups of underlying investment funds.

Historically, managed solutions have been built with mutual funds. However, the ascendance of the exchange traded fund (ETF) has led to a proliferation of options that provide exposure to meet nearly every investment need. This has opened up new possibilities to build diverse portfolios at a lower cost to investors.

Why Mackenzie ETF Portfolios
