

Why invest in China?

Why you should consider China as part of your portfolio allocation?

With an evolving 60/40, investing in China offers the opportunity to build a more modern portfolio while helping to diversify risk.

Growing numbers of investors around the world are looking to the world's second largest economy for asset allocation.

The value of foreign-owned Chinese stocks and bonds reached RMB 4.2 trillion by the end of Q1 2020, five-and-a-half times more than the RMB 744 billion held at the end of 2013.

Tech forward

China's flourishing tech sector is a cornerstone of its bright prospects in the future global economy.

Recent analysis has suggested that AI could provide an additional 1.6 percent to China's GDP growth by 2035.

China's AI pioneers are more optimistic than their U.S. and German counterparts:

Especially when compared with other leading countries worldwide, it is clear that China's innovative focus and readiness for the AI revolution means that it is ideally-placed to establish itself as a powerhouse of the future global economy.

China's size and growth, combined with Mackenzie Investments' long-term commitment in China, present opportunity for more a diversified, modern portfolio.
