A NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report may contain forward-looking statements that reflect our current expectations or forecasts of future events. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates", "preliminary", "typical" and other similar expressions. In addition, these statements may relate to future corporate actions, future financial performance of a fund or a security and their future investment strategies and prospects. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual events, results, performance or prospects to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties and assumptions include, without limitation, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, the volatility of global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological change, changes in government regulations, changes in securities laws and regulations, changes in tax laws, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, catastrophic events, outbreaks of disease or pandemics (such as COVID-19), and the ability of Mackenzie to attract or retain key employees. The foregoing list of important risks, uncertainties and assumptions is not exhaustive. Please consider these and other factors carefully and do not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking information contained in this report is current only as of the date of this report. There should not be an expectation that such information will in all circumstances be updated, supplemented or revised whether as a result of new information, changing circumstances, future events or otherwise.

ANNUAL MANAGEMENT REPORT OF FUND PERFORMANCE | For the Period Ended March 31, 2021

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

June 8, 2021

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the portfolio management team's view on the significant factors and developments during the period ended March 31, 2021 (the "period"), that have affected the ETF's performance and outlook. If the ETF was established during the period, "period" represents the period from inception to the end of the fiscal period. For information on the ETF's longer-term performance, as applicable, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report. In this report, "Mackenzie" refers to Mackenzie Financial Corporation, the manager of the ETF. In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the ETF as calculated for subscription and redemption purposes, on which the discussion of ETF performance is based.

Investment Objective and Strategies

The ETF seeks to replicate, to the extent reasonably possible and before fees and expenses, the performance of the Solactive Wealthsimple DM ex NA Socially Responsible Factor Index, or any successor thereto. It invests primarily in equity securities of companies in Europe, Australasia and the Far East with the goal of achieving diversified exposure to companies that do not violate commonly held social and environmental values.

Risk

The risks of the ETF remain as discussed in the ETF's Prospectus.

The ETF is suitable for medium- to long-term investors looking for a socially responsible international equity fund to hold as part of their portfolio, who can handle the volatility of stock markets and who have a medium tolerance for risk.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

From the ETF's inception on June 16, 2020, to March 31, 2021, the ETF returned 20.0% (after deducting fees and expenses). This compares with the Solactive Wealthsimple DM ex NA Socially Responsible Factor Index return of 20.4% for the same period. All index returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in the index returns.

Stocks in developed markets outside North America advanced over the period. Improved economic activity, coupled with continued government and central bank stimulus, supported equity markets even as some European countries entered COVID-19 lockdowns in late March 2021. Although Australia and many European countries outperformed, U.K. equities underperformed despite the signing of a trade and co-operation agreement between the United Kingdom and the European Union in December 2020. Asian markets generally underperformed. Currency movements reduced returns in Canadian dollar terms.

Through the period, the ETF invested substantially all its assets in the stocks that make up the index, holding each stock in approximately the same proportion as its weighting in the index. Alternatively, the ETF may use a sampling methodology to invest in broadly diversified securities that collectively approximate the full index in terms of key characteristics.

The difference in performance between the ETF and the index resulted primarily from management fees and other operating expenses, and from variations in the timing of currency conversions.

Net Assets

From its inception on June 16, 2020, to March 31, 2021, the ETF experienced $43.4 million in net income (including dividend income) from investment performance, after deducting fees and expenses, $292.5 million in net sales, and $1.2 million in cash distributions.

Recent Developments

Governments worldwide have enacted various measures in seeking to combat the spread of the COVID-19 virus. These measures have led to significant volatility in equity markets and material disruption to businesses globally, resulting in an economic slowdown.

Ongoing uncertainty regarding the duration and long-term impact of the pandemic and the implementation of vaccination programs, as well as the efficacy of government and central bank monetary and fiscal interventions, may continue to affect the ETFs performance in future periods.

Because the ETF is an index fund, neither market expectations nor recent developments affect the composition of the portfolio.

Effective February 24, 2021, Martin Taylor retired as a member of the Mackenzie Funds' Independent Review Committee.

Related Party Transactions

The following arrangements result in fees paid by the ETF to Mackenzie or to companies affiliated with the ETF.

Management Fees

The annualized management expense ratio ("MER") for the ETF was 0.28% since inception. The ETF paid management fees to Mackenzie at the annual rate of 0.25%.

The management fee for the ETF is calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of its NAV. The ETF's management fees were used by Mackenzie to pay for the costs of managing the investment portfolio of the ETF, including providing investment analysis and recommendations, making investment decisions, making brokerage arrangements for the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio, providing other services and licensing the index, and to pay for all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs as more fully described in the Prospectus) required to operate the ETF. Mackenzie used a portion of the management fees to pay Wealthsimple Inc., an affiliate of Mackenzie, as the promoter of the ETF.

Other Related Party Transactions

The ETF did not rely on an approval, positive recommendation or standing instruction from the Mackenzie Funds' Independent Review Committee with respect to a related party transaction in the period because it did not engage in any related party transactions.

Past Performance

The ETF's past performance information is presented in the following chart and table. It assumes all distributions made by the ETF in the periods presented are reinvested in additional units of the ETF. The chart and table do not take into account brokerage commissions or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns. The past performance of the ETF is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

If you hold this ETF outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions paid to you increase your income for tax purposes whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in additional units of the ETF. The amount of reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the units that you own. This would decrease your capital gain or increase your capital loss when you later sell from the ETF, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar chart presents the performance of the ETF for each of the fiscal periods shown. The chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each fiscal period, or on the ETF's inception date (June 16, 2020), as applicable, would have increased or decreased by the last day of the fiscal period presented.

Annual Compound Returns

The following table compares the historical annual compound total returns for the ETF with the relevant index or indices shown below for each of the periods ended March 31, 2021. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in these performance figures.

All index returns are calculated in Canadian dollars on a total return basis, meaning that all dividend payments, interest income accruals and interest payments are reinvested.

Solactive Wealthsimple DM ex NA Socially Responsible Factor Index	n/a	n/a	n/a	n/a	20.4

The Solactive Wealthsimple DM ex NA Socially Responsible Factor Index seeks to achieve diversified exposure to equities in 22 developed markets, excluding Canada and the United States, without investing in companies with poor social and/or environmental values. The index excludes companies involved in human rights violations or controversial industries including fossil fuels, gambling, tobacco, weapons and alcohol. Companies with low gender diversity on their boards and those with high carbon intensity within their industry are also excluded. The index uses a multi-factor screen and risk weighting to improve diversification. The ETF tracks a version of the index calculated net of withholding taxes.

(1) These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per unit. This information is derived from the ETF's audited annual financial statements. The net assets per unit presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value per unit calculated for ETF pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences, if any, can be found in the Notes to Financial Statements.

(2) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the fiscal period.

(3) Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional units of the ETF, or both.

(1) This information is provided as at the end of the fiscal period shown.

(2) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, income taxes and withholding taxes) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. If the ETF was established in the period, the management expense ratio is annualized from the date of inception. Mackenzie may waive or absorb operating expenses at its discretion and stop waiving or absorbing such expenses at any time without notice.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. Mackenzie may reimburse the ETF for certain brokerage commissions and other transaction costs (including those payable to the custodian or its agents). Mackenzie may make these reimbursements at its discretion and stop these reimbursements at any time without notice.

(4) The ETF's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the ETF's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the ETF buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher an ETF's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the ETF in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of an ETF. The portfolio turnover rate is not provided when the ETF is less than one year old.

(5) Closing market price, or the midpoint of the bid and ask prices in the absence of a closing market price, on the last trading day of the period as reported on the Toronto Stock Exchange.
