A NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report may contain forward-looking statements that reflect our current expectations or forecasts of future events. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates", "preliminary", "typical" and other similar expressions. In addition, these statements may relate to future corporate actions, future financial performance of a fund or a security and their future investment strategies and prospects. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual events, results, performance or prospects to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties and assumptions include, without limitation, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, the volatility of global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological change, changes in government regulations, changes in securities laws and regulations, changes in tax laws, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, catastrophic events and the ability of Mackenzie to attract or retain key employees. The foregoing list of important risks, uncertainties and assumptions is not exhaustive. Please consider these and other factors carefully and do not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking information contained in this report is current only as of the date of this report. There should not be an expectation that such information will in all circumstances be updated, supplemented or revised whether as a result of new information, changing circumstances, future events or otherwise.

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

November 12, 2019

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the portfolio management team's view on the significant factors and developments during the period ended September 30, 2019, that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook. If the Fund was established during the period, "period" represents the period from inception to the end of the fiscal period. For information on the Fund's longer-term performance, as applicable, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report. In this report, "Mackenzie" refers to Mackenzie Financial Corporation, the manager of the Fund. In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the Fund as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of the Fund's Series A and Series LB securities is discussed below. The performance of all series is shown in the Past Performance section of the report. Where series returns differ, it is primarily because different levels of fees and expenses were charged to each series, or because securities of a series were not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period. Please refer to the Fund Formation and Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by each series.

During the period, the Fund's Series A securities returned 1.2%, and Series LB securities returned 1.1% (after deducting fees and expenses paid by the series). This compares with a return of 2.6% for the Fund's broad-based index, the MSCI AC (All Country) World (Net) Index, and a return of 3.5% for a blended index.* All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in the index returns.

Canadian and U.S. equities generally outperformed other developed market equities over the period, as slowing economic growth, trade tensions and geopolitical strains such as the potential withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union challenged some markets more than others. Canadian bonds performed well but lagged the United States due to a resilient Canadian economy, higher inflation rates and a more optimistic tone from the Bank of Canada. U.S. bonds also benefited from two decreases in the federal funds rate. Lower interest rates supported high-yield bond markets, particularly higher-quality bonds with longer duration. In emerging markets, bond performance varied greatly, and currencies depreciated relative to the Canadian dollar.

Within the MSCI AC (All Country) World (Net) Index, Egypt, Russia and Turkey were the strongest-performing countries in Canadian dollar terms, while Argentina, Pakistan and Chile were the weakest. From a sector perspective, utilities, information technology and consumer staples were the strongest performers, while energy, materials and health care were the weakest.

* The blended index is composed of a 55% weighting in the MSCI AC (All Country) World (Net) Index (returned 2.6%), a 20% weighting in the S&P/TSX Composite Index (returned 5.1%), a 20% weighting in the FTSE Canada Universe Bond Index (returned 3.7%) and a 5% weighting in the ICE BofAML Global Broad Market (Hedged) Index (returned 5.2%).

Within the S&P/TSX Composite Index, information technology, utilities and financials were the strongest sectors, while health care, energy and communication services were the weakest.

The Fund currently invests all its assets in Symmetry Growth Portfolio (the "Underlying Fund"). The following discussion reflects the Underlying Fund's allocation decisions and the activities and performance of its underlying investment funds and other directly held securities. The Fund underperformed both the broad-based index and the blended index, with its equity portfolio detracting from performance. Given the Fund's mandate, the return of the blended index is a more meaningful comparison. Relative to the blended index, the fixed income portfolio also detracted.

Within the equity portion of the Fund, stock selection in the United States detracted from performance. In sector terms, stock selection in information technology and financials detracted. Conversely, stock selection in the health care sector contributed to performance.

Within the fixed income portion of the Fund, a shorter duration detracted from performance as yields fell.

Active management of foreign currency exposure detracted from performance. The Fund had overweight exposure to the British pound as it depreciated relative to the Canadian dollar.

The Fund used long and short futures to manage its exposures to specific asset classes and markets, and these holdings contributed to performance overall.

Over the period, portfolio activity and market effect resulted in increased exposure to the United States and decreased exposure to Canada. Within the equity portion of the Fund, exposure to the financials sector increased, while exposure to the energy sector decreased. Within the fixed income portion of the Fund, exposure to corporate bonds and foreign government bonds increased, while exposure to federal bonds decreased.

Net Assets

The Fund's NAV declined by 3.1% to $83.2 million at September 30, 2019, from $85.9 million at March 31, 2019. This change was composed primarily of $1.3 million in net income (including dividend income) from investment performance, after deducting fees and expenses, $3.8 million in net redemptions, and $0.1 million in cash distributions.

Fees and Expenses

The annualized management expense ratios ("MERs") for Series A of 2.44% and for Series LB of 2.53% during the period ended September 30, 2019, were slightly lower than the MERs for the year ended March 31, 2019, which were 2.46% for Series A and 2.54% for Series LB. The MERs (before and after waivers or absorptions, if any) for all series are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report. The MERs for Series B, Series PWFB, Series LW and Series LW5 decreased due to a decrease in fund costs and decreases in the management and/or administration fee rates effective June 1, 2018, August 17, 2018, and/or November 23, 2018, as noted in the Fund Formation and Series Information section of the report.

Recent Developments

On July 19, 2019, Nelson Arruda of the Mackenzie Multi-Asset Strategies team assumed responsibility from Alain Bergeron as lead portfolio manager of the Fund and the Underlying Fund.

For much of the period, markets focused on the U.S.–China trade war and the negative impacts on global growth. In the United States, growth has slowed largely due to weaker trade and manufacturing. However, the Multi-Asset Strategies team believes domestically focused sectors such as personal consumption and housing may help the U.S. economy avoid recession. In Canada, the economy has had strong jobs and wage growth.

Internationally, many economies that are more heavily dependent on global trade, such as Germany, have suffered from the trade disruptions. Major central banks around the globe, including the U.S. Federal Reserve and the European Central Bank, have initiated or are maintaining ultra-easy monetary policy, with lower to negative interest rates and large-scale asset purchases. The team believes such measures may remain in place until growth significantly re-accelerates. In the team's view, the Bank of Canada will have a less accommodative policy than that of its global counterparts.

Related Party Transactions

The following arrangements result in fees paid by the Fund to Mackenzie or to companies affiliated with the Fund.

Management and Administration Services

For each applicable series, the Fund paid management fees and administration fees to Mackenzie at the annual rates specified under Fund Formation and Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, Mackenzie pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund that are not included in management fees. See also Management Fees.

Other Related Party Transactions

At September 30, 2019, Mackenzie had an investment of $14,673 in the Fund (less than 0.1% of the Fund's NAV).

The Fund did not rely on an approval, positive recommendation or standing instruction from the Mackenzie Funds' Independent Review Committee with respect to any related party transactions.

Past Performance

The following bar charts present the performance of each series of the Fund for each of the fiscal periods shown. The charts show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each fiscal period, or on the series inception or reinstatement date, as applicable, would have increased or decreased by the last day of the fiscal period presented. Series inception or reinstatement dates can be found under Fund Formation and Series Information.

- (1) These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. This information is derived from the Fund's unaudited interim financial statements and audited annual financial statements. The net assets per security presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value per security calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences can be found in the Notes to Financial Statements.
- (2) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the fiscal period.
- (3) Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

- (1) This information is provided as at the end of the fiscal period shown.
- (2) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. If in the period a series was established or reinstated, the management expense ratio is annualized from the date of inception or reinstatement. Mackenzie may waive or absorb operating expenses at its discretion and stop waiving or absorbing such expenses at any time without notice.
- (3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
- (4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not provided when the Fund is less than one year old. The value of any trades to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, is excluded from the portfolio turnover rate.

Management Fees

The management fee for each applicable series is calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of its NAV. The Fund's management fees were used by Mackenzie to pay for the costs of managing the investment portfolio of the Fund and/or the underlying fund(s), as applicable, including providing investment analysis and recommendations, making investment decisions, making brokerage arrangements for the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio, and providing other services. Mackenzie also used the management fees to fund sales commissions, trailing commissions and any other compensation (collectively "distribution-related payments") to registered dealers and brokers whose clients invest in the Fund.

LBC Financial Services Inc. ("LBC") is the principal distributor for the LBC series securities of the Fund (as listed under Fund Formation and Series Information) and receives a portion of the management fees that the Fund pays to Mackenzie. Under this arrangement, LBC was entitled to approximately 23% of the total management fees that Mackenzie received from the LBC series of all Mackenzie funds during the period. Mackenzie is responsible for paying all distribution-related payments to LBC-authorized dealers whose clients invest in the LBC series of the Fund.

The following dealers affiliated with Mackenzie may be entitled to distribution-related payments from Mackenzie on the same basis as unrelated registered brokers and dealers: IPC Securities Corporation, Investors Group Securities Inc., IPC Investment Corporation and Investors Group Financial Services Inc.

Mackenzie used approximately 43% of the total management fee revenues received from all Mackenzie funds during the period to fund distribution-related payments to registered dealers and brokers. In comparison, such distribution-related payments for the Fund represented on average 41% of the management fees paid by all applicable series of the Fund during the period. The actual percentage for each series may be higher or lower than the average depending on the level of trailing commissions and sales commissions paid for that series.

Series LM securities are no longer available for sale, except that pre-authorized contribution plans that were in place as at November 25, 2015, may continue.

An investor in the Fund may choose among different purchase options that are available under each series. These purchase options are a sales charge purchase option, a redemption charge purchase option, various low-load purchase options and a no-load purchase option. The charges under the sales charge purchase option are negotiated by investors with their dealers. The charges under the redemption charge and low-load purchase options are paid to Mackenzie if an investor redeems securities of the Fund during specific periods. Not all purchase options are available under each series of the Fund, and the charges for each purchase option may vary among the different series. For further details on these purchase options, please refer to the Fund's Simplified Prospectus and Fund Facts.
