A NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report may contain forward-looking statements that reflect our current expectations or forecasts of future events. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates", "preliminary", "typical" and other similar expressions. In addition, these statements may relate to future corporate actions, future financial performance of a fund or a security and their future investment strategies and prospects. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual events, results, performance or prospects to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties and assumptions include, without limitation, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, the volatility of global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological change, changes in government regulations, changes in securities laws and regulations, changes in tax laws, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, catastrophic events and the ability of Mackenzie to attract or retain key employees. The foregoing list of important risks, uncertainties and assumptions is not exhaustive. Please consider these and other factors carefully and do not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking information contained in this report is current only as of the date of this report. There should not be an expectation that such information will in all circumstances be updated, supplemented or revised whether as a result of new information, changing circumstances, future events or otherwise.

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

November 12, 2019

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the portfolio management team's view on the significant factors and developments during the period ended September 30, 2019, that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook. If the Fund was established during the period, "period" represents the period from inception to the end of the fiscal period. For information on the Fund's longer-term performance, as applicable, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report. In this report, "Mackenzie" refers to Mackenzie Financial Corporation, the manager of the Fund. In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the Fund as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Risk

The risks of the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's Simplified Prospectus.

The Fund is suitable for medium- to long-term investors looking for a global equity fund to hold as part of their portfolio, who can handle the volatility of stock markets and who have a low to medium tolerance for risk. Before June 28, 2019, the Fund was deemed suitable for investors who had a medium tolerance for risk. The Fund may not be held within a registered plan.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of the Fund's Series PW and Series LW securities is discussed below. The performance of all series is shown in the Past Performance section of the report. Where series returns differ, it is primarily because different levels of fees and expenses were charged to each series, or because securities of a series were not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period. Please refer to the Fund Formation and Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by each series.

During the period, the Fund's Series PW securities returned -0.9%, and Series LW securities returned -0.8% (after deducting fees and expenses paid by the series). This compares with the MSCI World (Net) Index return of 3.6%. All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in the index returns.

Global equities rose slightly in the period. From May to August, global manufacturing sectors contracted. This downturn was most pronounced in the Eurozone and Japan, but U.S. manufacturing also slowed. Geopolitical uncertainty weighed on business capital investment and on global industry. The European Central Bank announced new stimulus measures to support the Eurozone economy. The U.S. Federal Reserve cut the federal funds rate by 25 basis points in July and again in September.

Within the MSCI World (Net) Index, Switzerland, the Netherlands and Australia were the strongest-performing countries in Canadian dollar terms, while Hong Kong, Israel and Austria were the weakest. From a sector perspective, utilities, information technology and consumer staples were the strongest performers, while energy, health care and materials were the weakest.

The Fund currently invests all its assets in Mackenzie Private Global Equity Pool (the "Underlying Fund"). The following discussion reflects the Underlying Fund's allocation decisions and the activities and performance of its underlying investment funds and other directly held securities. The Fund underperformed the index, with stock selection in the financials, communication services, materials, consumer staples and consumer discretionary sectors detracting from performance. The Fund's holdings in China and overweight position in Hong Kong detracted from a geographic perspective, as did stock selection in the United States and the United Kingdom.

Conversely, stock selection in the health care sector and an underweight position in energy contributed to performance, as did stock selection in Germany and holdings in Russia.

The Fund's foreign currency exposure is actively managed to help mitigate risk and take advantage of opportunities at the total portfolio level. During the period, currency activities contributed to performance as most currencies held in the Fund depreciated relative to the Canadian dollar.

Over the period, portfolio activity and market effect resulted in increased exposure to Switzerland and Germany. Exposure to Australia and Sweden decreased. At the sector level, exposure to information technology and financials increased, while exposure to materials decreased.

Net Assets

The Fund's NAV increased by 0.3% to $9.23 million at September 30, 2019, from $9.20 million at March 31, 2019. This change was composed primarily of $0.1 million in net losses from investment performance, after deducting fees and expenses, $0.2 million in net sales, and $0.1 million in cash distributions.

Fees and Expenses

The annualized management expense ratio ("MER") for Series PW of 2.13% during the period ended September 30, 2019, was slightly lower than the MER of 2.15% for the year ended March 31, 2019. The annualized MER for Series LW of 2.17% during the period ended September 30, 2019, was slightly higher than the annualized MER of 2.15% for the period ended March 31, 2019. The MERs (before and after waivers or absorptions, if any) for all series are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report. The MER for Series PWF8 decreased due to a decrease in fund costs and a decrease in the management fee rate effective June 1, 2018, as noted in the Fund Formation and Series Information section of the report.

Recent Developments

On July 19, 2019, Nelson Arruda of the Mackenzie Multi-Asset Strategies team assumed responsibility from Alain Bergeron for the asset mix of the Fund and the Underlying Fund.

For much of the period, markets focused on the U.S.–China trade war and the negative impacts on global growth. In the United States, growth has slowed largely due to weaker trade and manufacturing. However, the Multi-Asset Strategies team believes domestically focused sectors such as personal consumption and housing may help the U.S. economy avoid recession.

Internationally, many economies that are more heavily dependent on global trade, such as Germany, have suffered from the trade disruptions. Major central banks around the globe, including the Federal Reserve and the European Central Bank, have initiated or are maintaining ultra-easy monetary policy, with lower to negative interest rates and large-scale asset purchases. The team believes such measures may remain in place until growth significantly re-accelerates.

Related Party Transactions

The following arrangements result in fees paid by the Fund to Mackenzie or to companies affiliated with the Fund.

Management and Administration Services

For each applicable series, the Fund paid management fees and administration fees to Mackenzie at the annual rates specified under Fund Formation and Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, Mackenzie pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund that are not included in management fees. See also Management Fees.

Other Related Party Transactions

At September 30, 2019, Mackenzie had an investment of $12,011 in the Fund (0.1% of the Fund's NAV).

The Fund did not rely on an approval, positive recommendation or standing instruction from the Mackenzie Funds' Independent Review Committee with respect to any related party transactions.

- These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. This information is derived from the Fund's unaudited interim financial statements and audited annual financial statements. The net assets per security presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value per security calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences can be found in the Notes to Financial Statements.
- Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the fiscal period.
- Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

- (1) This information is provided as at the end of the fiscal period shown.
- (2) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. If in the period a series was established or reinstated, the management expense ratio is annualized from the date of inception or reinstatement. Mackenzie may waive or absorb operating expenses at its discretion and stop waiving or absorbing such expenses at any time without notice.
- (3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
- (4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not provided when the Fund is less than one year old. The value of any trades to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, is excluded from the portfolio turnover rate.

Management Fees

The management fee for each applicable series is calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of its NAV. The Fund's management fees were used by Mackenzie to pay for the costs of managing the investment portfolio of the Fund and/or the underlying fund(s), as applicable, including providing investment analysis and recommendations, making investment decisions, making brokerage arrangements for the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio, and providing other services. Mackenzie also used the management fees to fund sales commissions, trailing commissions and any other compensation (collectively "distribution-related payments") to registered dealers and brokers whose clients invest in the Fund.

LBC Financial Services Inc. ("LBC") is the principal distributor for the LBC series securities of the Fund (as listed under Fund Formation and Series Information) and receives a portion of the management fees that the Fund pays to Mackenzie. Under this arrangement, LBC was entitled to approximately 23% of the total management fees that Mackenzie received from the LBC series of all Mackenzie funds during the period. Mackenzie is responsible for paying all distribution-related payments to LBC-authorized dealers whose clients invest in the LBC series of the Fund.

The following dealers affiliated with Mackenzie may be entitled to distribution-related payments from Mackenzie on the same basis as unrelated registered brokers and dealers: IPC Securities Corporation, Investors Group Securities Inc., IPC Investment Corporation and Investors Group Financial Services Inc.

Mackenzie used approximately 43% of the total management fee revenues received from all Mackenzie funds during the period to fund distribution-related payments to registered dealers and brokers. In comparison, such distribution-related payments for the Fund represented on average 25% of the management fees paid by all applicable series of the Fund during the period. The actual percentage for each series may be higher or lower than the average depending on the level of trailing commissions and sales commissions paid for that series.
